

SCORE Workshop Presenter Guidelines

Due to SCORE's status as a non-profit association funded through government grants, there are a few guidelines to which we will ask that you adhere. This document covers guidelines for both SCORE Volunteers Presenters and non-SCORE Volunteer Presenters.

By presenting a workshop for SCORE, you agree to the following:

1. To not promote, sell or advertise any product or service during the workshop.
2. To list at least three other resources related to the topic if listing their company as a source of information for clients.
3. To not promote any political leanings or views.
4. To provide SCORE with the title, description, presenter names and bios no later than 8 weeks prior to the event. This information is needed for registration and/or promotions.
5. To provide SCORE with my final presentation slides and related materials prior to the workshop event date.
 - a.) SCORE Volunteer Presenters must use SCORE templates or neutral (non-branded) templates for presentation materials and must not include business logos on presentation slide materials.
 - b.) Non-SCORE Presenters are encouraged to use SCORE templates or neutral (non-branded) templates for presentation materials and should minimize the use of business logos on presentation slides/ materials.
6. To ensure all content is strictly educational. Workshop presenters can ask participants to opt-in to your communications.
7. To not send unsolicited communications to SCORE clients, chapters, or volunteers to promote their product/services.
8. To understand that leaving business cards for clients to pick up after the workshop is allowed.
 - a.) SCORE Workshop Volunteer Presenters may only leave their SCORE business cards.
 - b.) Non-SCORE Presenters may leave their personal business cards.
9. To understand that Workshop Presenter volunteers cannot solicit clients in the workshop.
10. To understand that if any of these points are violated, the workshop may be cancelled, and I will not be invited to present additional SCORE workshops.

Thank you for your cooperation.
